

MATADOR WHOLESALE PTY LTD

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Matador Wholesale Pty Ltd is committed to protecting your personal privacy. We will endeavour in the practice of our business to appropriately safeguard your privacy. This privacy policy details the kind of personal information we may hold and how we ensure that it is properly collected, managed and protected.

By personal information, we are referring to information about you as an individual that we have recorded in the course of our business and in your dealings with us. This may be contact information, specific information that you provide to us or information that we compile. This information may come to us when you make an enquiry and provide us with your contact details. It may be information we record to enable us to work with you as a customer. At all times, our policy is to consider your rights over what information is collected and how it is used.

Your personal information may be used for the following purposes only:

- To enable us to respond to any enquiries or complaints
- To provide you with information about our products, services and promotions
- To ask for your opinions and comments
- To collate into statistical data for marketing analysis
- Matador Wholesale will not provide your personal information to any third party without your consent.

At all times, you are free to contact us regarding the personal information about you that we may hold. We will provide you with a record of the information we have and encourage you to help us keep it accurate. If at any time you wish to change or delete any of the information we have about you we will amend our records appropriately, unless we need to keep it for legal reasons. Please note however that deletion of your information may impact on our ability to effectively provide products and services to you.

Matador Wholesale will endeavour to take all reasonable steps to ensure that the information we hold about you is protected and secure.
